Dear Plan Participant:

The County of San Diego Deferred Compensation Program is committed to helping you succeed in planning for your retirement. As part of that commitment, we've continued our efforts to enhance your investment choices and minimize costs to you. We're pleased to announce a credit will be applied to your account based on Program cost savings.

What to expect

The credit will be reflected on your second quarter statement as a "Fund Reimbursement" transaction as of April 25th, 2022. You can also view this information on the online service center at www.myDCplan.com on the Overview account page.

This credit will not count toward the normal Plan contribution limits.

We're here to help
