

It's easy to get smart(er)

April is Financial Literacy Month, and April 8-12 is America Saves Week.

This is a great time to acknowledge that we all have room to grow when it comes to financial matters — so let's take advantage of this special month and commit to learning more.

Fun and educational materials are available to you on a special web page, including an interactive quiz and a family-friendly activity book. You can even enter a sweepstakes for a $25 gift card.
